

Reports Due Before the December 11, 2018, Special Election for Senate District 6

This notice only applies to candidates and committees that are involved in the special election

December 3, 2018: 8-day campaign finance report must be received by December 3.

December 2, 2018 to December 10, 2018 at noon: period for filing daily pre-election reports.

December 6, 2018: personal financial statement must be filed electronically by December 6.

December 3, 2018 (deadline is extended due to weekend): The 8-day pre-election campaign finance report must be received by the Texas Ethics Commission by December 3, 2018. Candidates for the office must file even if there was no activity during the reporting period. Political committees that accept political contributions or make political expenditures and/or have other activity in connection with the election are also required to file this report. The first day covered by the report is July 1, 2018, or the date your campaign treasurer appointment was filed, or the day after the date the last report ended, as applicable. The last day covered by the report is December 1, 2018.

December 2, 2018 – December 10, 2018: The period for filing a daily pre-election report begins on December 2, 2018, and ends at noon on December 10, 2018. A filer may be required to file more than one daily pre-election report.

- Candidates and Specific-Purpose Committees: A candidate or specific-purpose committee that accepts political contributions from a single source that total more than $1,000 during the reporting period must file a daily pre-election report. A daily pre-election report must be received by the Ethics Commission by the first business day after the date of the contribution that causes the total amount accepted from a contributor during the period to exceed $1,000.
- General-Purpose Committees: A campaign treasurer of a GPAC or CEC must file a daily pre-election report if the committee is involved in this special election, and if the committee accepts political contributions from a person that total more than $5,000 during the reporting period, or makes direct campaign expenditures supporting or opposing either a single candidate that total more than $1,000 or a group of candidates that total more than $15,000 during the reporting period. A daily pre-election report must be received by the Ethics Commission by the first business day after the date the contribution is accepted or the expenditure is made that causes the total amount to exceed the applicable threshold.

December 6, 2018: The PFS must be filed no later than midnight Central Time Zone on December 6, 2018. This statement must cover financial activity for the calendar year ending December 31, 2017. It is required to be filed by all candidates on this special election ballot. The PFS must be filed electronically. An extension of this filing deadline is not available.

Further Information

Persons filing campaign finance reports with the Ethics Commission are required to file those reports electronically unless the person falls within the statutory exemption. Electronic reports must be filed by midnight, Central Time Zone, on the night of the filing deadline. Please refer to “Electronic Filing” on our website for further information on electronic filing.