This notice only applies to candidates and committees that are involved in the special runoff election

March 4, 2019: Runoff report must be received by March 4.

March 3, 2019, to March 11, 2019, at noon: Filing period for daily pre-election reports.

March 4, 2019: The runoff report due 8 days before this special runoff election must be received by the Texas Ethics Commission by March 4. Candidates for the office must file this runoff report even if there was no activity during the reporting period. Political committees that accept political contributions or make political expenditures and/or have other activity in connection with this election are also required to file this report. The first day covered by the report is February 3, 2019, the date your campaign treasurer appointment was filed, or the day after the date the last report ended, as applicable. The last day covered by the report is March 2, 2019.

March 3 – March 11, 2019: The period for filing daily pre-election reports begins March 3, 2019, and ends at noon on March 11, 2019. A filer may be required to file more than one daily pre-election report.

- Candidates and Specific-Purpose Committees: A candidate or specific-purpose committee that accepts political contributions from a single source that total more than $1,000 during the reporting period must file the daily pre-election report. A daily pre-election report must be received by the Texas Ethics Commission by the first business day after the date of the contribution that causes the total amount accepted from a contributor during the period to exceed $1,000.
- General-Purpose Committees: A general-purpose committee must file a daily pre-election report if the committee is involved in this special runoff election, and if the committee accepts political contributions from a person that total more than $5,000 during the reporting period, or makes direct campaign expenditures supporting or opposing either a single candidate that total more than $1,000 or a group of candidates that total more than $15,000 during the reporting period. A daily pre-election report must be received by the first business day after the date the contribution is accepted or the expenditure is made that causes the total amount to exceed the applicable threshold.
