

Reports Due Before the September 18, 2018, Special Runoff Election for State Senator, District 19
This notice only applies to candidates and committees that are involved in the special runoff election

September 10, 2018: Runoff report must be received by September 10.

September 9, 2018, to September 17, 2018, at noon: Filing period for daily pre-election reports.

September 10, 2018: The runoff report due 8 days before the special runoff election must be received by the Texas Ethics Commission by September 10. Candidates for the office must file even if there was no activity during the reporting period. Political committees that accept political contributions or make political expenditures and/or have other activity in connection with the election are also required to file this report. The first day covered by the report is July 22, 2018, the date your campaign treasurer appointment was filed, or the day after the date the last report ended, as applicable. The last day covered by the report is September 8, 2018.

September 9, 2018: The period for filing daily pre-election reports begins September 9, 2018, and ends at noon on September 17, 2018. A filer may be required to file more than one daily pre-election report.

- Candidates and Specific-Purpose Committees: A candidate or specific-purpose committee that accepts political contributions from a single source that total more than $1,000 during the reporting period must file the daily pre-election report. A daily pre-election report must be received by the Texas Ethics Commission by the first business day after the date of the contribution that causes the total amount accepted from a contributor during the period to exceed $1,000.
- General-Purpose Committees: A general-purpose committee must file a daily pre-election report if the committee is involved in the special runoff election being held on September 18, 2018, and if the committee accepts political contributions from a person that total more than $5,000 during the reporting period, or makes direct campaign expenditures supporting or opposing either a single candidate that total more than $1,000 or a group of candidates that total more than $15,000 during the reporting period. A daily pre-election report must be received by the first business day after the date the contribution is accepted or the expenditure is made that causes the total amount to exceed the applicable threshold.

Further Information

Persons filing campaign finance reports with the Texas Ethics Commission are required to file those reports electronically unless the person falls within the statutory exemption. Electronic reports must be filed by midnight, Central Time Zone, on the night of the filing deadline. Please refer to "File Reports Electronically" on our website for further information on electronic filing.