JOB DESCRIPTION: The Texas Ethics Commission (“Commission”) is hiring an attorney to perform moderately complex (journey-level) attorney work administering and enforcing state ethics laws. Depending on the experience and interests of the applicant, the position may be either in the Commission’s Office of General Counsel (“OGC”) or its Enforcement Division. Work for the OGC includes researching and interpreting laws and regulations, drafting advisory opinions, analyzing pending legislation during legislative sessions, and responding to requests made under the Public Information Act. Work for the Enforcement Division would involve investigating and processing sworn complaints, conducting discovery and hearings, and drafting and negotiating settlements. This position works under moderate supervision with significant latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment.

SPECIFIC JOB FUNCTIONS:

- Performs legal research and prepares legal memoranda on regulatory matters, including briefs, opinions, and motions.
- Drafts rules, advisory opinions, forms, instructions, and guides, and may draft notices for the Texas Register.
- Makes presentations to the Commission board, groups regulated by the Commission, and the general public.
- Processes and investigates sworn complaint cases.
- Conducts discovery, including requests for production, written questions, and applications for the issuance and enforcement of subpoenas.
- Conducts or assists in administrative enforcement hearings before the Commission board, including preliminary review hearings, and pre-hearing conferences and formal hearings subject to the Administrative Procedure Act, Texas Rules of Evidence, and Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.
- Drafts and negotiates settlements with respondents and opposing counsel.
- May research and analyze legislation, and communicate with or testify before members and staff of the Texas Legislature, during legislative sessions.
- May assist in reviewing and processing public information requests and requesting rulings under the Public Information Act.
- Performs related work as assigned.
