The pre-election reports listed below are required to be filed with the Texas Ethics Commission (TEC) only if your committee supports or opposes a candidate in the special elections listed above. The semiannual report must be filed regardless of campaign finance activity in connection with the special election.

January 15, 2019: Semiannual Report. A semiannual campaign finance report must be filed with the TEC by Tuesday, January 15, 2019. You must file this report EVEN IF THERE WAS NO ACTIVITY during the reporting period. The last day covered by the report is December 31, 2018.

January 22, 2019 (deadline extended due to holiday): 8-Day Pre-Election Report. Your 8-day pre-election report must be received by the Texas Ethics Commission (TEC) by Tuesday, January 22, 2019, if the committee has activity in connection with the January 29, 2019, special elections. The last day covered by the report is January 19, 2019.

January 20 – January 28: Daily Pre-Election Report(s) for Contributions. The reporting period for filing a daily pre-election report begins on January 20, 2019, and ends at noon on January 28, 2019. SPACs involved in these elections must file daily pre-election reports to report political contributions from a single source that total more than $1,000 during this period. Therefore, you may be required to file more than one daily pre-election report. Contributions reported on a daily pre-election report must be reported again in the next applicable campaign finance report.

TIMELY FILING. A campaign finance report transmitted by Internet is considered timely filed if it is successfully transmitted in the correct format by midnight, Central Time Zone, on the date of the filing deadline. A report eligible to be filed on paper, by a person who qualifies for the electronic filing exemption, must be received by the TEC by 5:00 p.m. on the filing deadline.
