Upcoming Deadlines for the December 19, 2020, Special Runoff Election for State Senator, District 30, for General-Purpose Committees and County Executive Committees

This notice is to remind you of upcoming deadlines that may apply to you if your general-purpose political committee (GPAC) or county executive committee (CEC) is involved in the December 19, 2020, Special Runoff Election for State Senator, District 30. All reports listed below are required to be filed with the Texas Ethics Commission (TEC) if the committee accepted political contributions or made political expenditures and/or had other activity in connection with these elections. If your committee is not involved in these special runoff elections, these reports are not required.

DECEMBER 11, 2020: Runoff Report: A runoff report due eight days before this special runoff election must be received by the TEC by Tuesday, December 11, 2020, if the committee has activity in connection with the December 19, 2020, special runoff election during the period covered by the runoff report. The first day covered by the report is September 20, 2020, or the date your campaign treasurer appointment was filed, or the day after the date your last report ended, as applicable. The last day covered by the report is December 9, 2020.

DECEMBER 10 – DECEMBER 18, 2020: Daily Pre-Election Report(s): The reporting period for filing daily pre-election reports begins on December 10, 2020, and ends at noon on December 18, 2020. A campaign treasurer of a GPAC or CEC must file one or more daily pre-election reports if the committee is involved in this special runoff election, and if the committee accepts political contributions from a single source that total more than $6,090 during the reporting period, or makes direct campaign expenditures supporting or opposing either a single candidate that total more than $1,790 or a group of candidates that total more than $26,780 during the reporting period. A daily pre-election report must be received by the TEC not later than the first business day after the date the contribution is accepted or the expenditure is made that causes the total amount to exceed the applicable threshold. Therefore, you may be required to file more than one daily pre-election report. Any political activity reported on a daily pre-election report must be reported again on the next required campaign finance report.

ELECTRONIC FILING: A campaign finance report must be filed electronically unless you qualify for the statutory exemption. To be in compliance with current requirements, you must use the campaign finance filing application found at www.ethics.state.tx.us/filinginfo/TECindex.php. When you file electronically, you should wait for a confirmation number. If you do not get a confirmation number, the report has NOT been filed.

TIMELY FILING: A campaign finance report transmitted by Internet is considered timely filed if it is successfully transmitted in the correct format by midnight, Central Time Zone, on the date of the filing deadline. A campaign finance report eligible to be filed on paper, by a person who qualifies for the electronic filing exemption, must be received by the TEC by 5:00 p.m. on the filing deadline. All paper reports must include the electronic filing exemption form, which may be found at www.ethics.state.tx.us/data/forms/affd/elf_pac_aff.pdf.

LATE-FILING PENALTY: The minimum late-filing penalty for a runoff report is $500. The minimum late-filing penalty for a daily pre-election report is $500 for each report that is late.

FILING SCHEDULES AND MORE: Future deadlines are listed on the filing schedules located at www.ethics.state.tx.us/filinginfo/schedules/filing_schedules.php. Also on our website are forms, instructions, filing guides, common reporting errors and other information that you may find useful.
