

LOSING OUT-OF-STATE COMMITTEE STATUS

If an out-of-state political committee decides to file a campaign treasurer appointment or performs an activity that causes it to lose out-of-state political committee status, the committee becomes subject to Texas campaign finance law to the same extent as a political committee that is not an out-of-state political committee. Tex. Elec. Code § 254.1581. An out-of-state political committee can lose its status as an out-of-state political committee by making political expenditures in connection with elections voted on in Texas that cause the committee to not qualify under the calculation described in the preceding section.

OUT-OF-STATE COMMITTEE REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

As a general rule, an out-of-state political committee is not required to file a campaign treasurer appointment or campaign finance reports under Texas law. (See Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 208). However, an out-of-state political committee becomes subject to Title 15 of the Election Code to the same extent as a political committee that is not an out-of-state political committee if it:

- (1) files a campaign treasurer appointment with the Commission; or
- (2) performs an activity that removes the committee from out-of-state status as defined by section 251.001(15) of Title 15 of the Election Code.

See Tex. Elec. Code § 251.005.

An out-of-state political committee may file a campaign treasurer appointment with the Texas Ethics Commission (TEC) even if it is not required to do so. Once a committee does so, the campaign treasurer is subject to the filing requirements applicable to a Texas political committee.

If the out-of-state political committee is not, and is not required to be, registered with the Texas Ethics Commission, it may still make contributions to statewide candidates, officeholders, and political committees, but it will need to file a report and provide documentation to certain recipients of its contributions.

For more information, see “What To Report” and “Restrictions” in this guide.

WHAT TO REPORT

An out-of-state political committee that has not filed a campaign treasurer appointment must provide certain information to the Texas Ethics Commission.

For each reporting period in which an out-of-state political committee accepts political contributions or makes political expenditures in connection with a state or local election in Texas, the committee shall file with the commission a copy of one or more reports filed with the Federal Election Commission or with the proper filing authority of at least one other state that shows the political contributions accepted, political expenditures made, and other expenditures made by the committee. A report must be filed within the same period in which it is required to be filed under federal law or the law of the other state. Tex. Elec. Code § 254.1581; 1 Tex. Admin. Code § 20.13(a).

An out-of-state political committee that files reports electronically in another jurisdiction may comply with this reporting requirement by sending a letter to the commission specifying in detail where the electronic report may be found on the website of the agency with which the out-of-state political committee is required to file its reports. 1 Tex. Admin. Code § 20.13(a).

If the out-of-state political committee does not file reports electronically in another jurisdiction, it may comply with this reporting requirement by sending a copy of the cover sheets of the report and a copy of each page on which the committee reports a contribution or expenditure accepted or made in connection with a state or local election in 1 Tex. Admin. Code § 20.13(a).

ACCEPTING CONTRIBUTIONS FROM OUT-OF-STATE COMMITTEE

Accepting Contributions Over $1,010 in a Reporting Period

Before a candidate, officeholder, or political committee accepts more than $1,010 in a reporting period from an out-of-state political committee, the recipient must obtain either: (1) a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state political committee, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $200 to the out-of-state political committee during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution, or (2) a copy of the out-of-state political committee's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state political committee. Tex. Elec. Code § 253.032(a).

The candidate, officeholder, or political committee accepting the contributions must include this documentation with the report of contributions and expenditures for the period in which the contributions were accepted. Tex. Elec. Code § 253.032(d).

Reporting Contributions Over $1,010 Accepted During the Reporting Period

If a candidate, officeholder, or political committee accepts more than $1,010 in a reporting period (including pledges or loans from sources other than financial institutions that have been in business for more than a year) from an out-of-state political committee, the recipient must include with the recipient's report disclosing those contributions either:

- (1) a written statement, certified by an officer of the out-of-state political committee, listing the full name and address of each person who contributed more than $200 to the out-of-state political committee during the 12 months immediately preceding the contribution. If the recipient files that report electronically, the recipient may either use the "memo" field to enter this information on the electronic report or timely file a paper copy of the information at the time the electronic report is filed; or
- (2) a copy of the out-of-state political committee's statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state political committee. If the recipient files that report electronically, the recipient may either use the “PAC FEC ID #” field to enter the out-of-state political committee’s FEC identification number on the electronic report or timely file a certified paper copy of the out-of-state political committee’s FEC statement of organization at the time the electronic report is filed.

1 Tex. Admin. Code §§ 22.7 and 20.29.

Reporting Contributions of $1,010 or Less Accepted During the Reporting Period

If a candidate, officeholder, or political committee accepts $1,010 or less (including pledges) in a reporting period from an out-of-state political committee, the recipient must include with the recipient’s report disclosing those contributions either:

- (1) a copy of the out-of-state political committee’s statement of organization filed as required by law with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and certified by an officer of the out-of-state political committee. If the recipient files reports electronically with the TEC, the recipient may either use the “PAC FEC ID #” field to enter the out-of-state political committee’s FEC identification number on the electronic report or timely file a certified paper copy of the out-of-state political committee’s FEC statement of organization at the time the electronic report is filed; or
- (2) a document listing the committee’s name, address and phone number; the name of the person appointing the committee’s campaign treasurer; and the name, address and phone number of the committee’s campaign treasurer. If the recipient files reports electronically with the TEC, the recipient may either use the “memo” field to enter this information on the electronic report or timely file a paper copy of the information at the time the electronic report is filed.

Tex. Elec. Code § 253.032(e); 1 Tex. Admin. Code §§ 22.7 and 20.29.

RESTRICTIONS

Chapter 253 of the Election Code contains a number of restrictions regarding the acceptance and use of political contributions, including but not limited to the following:

- (1) During a period that begins 30 days before a regular legislative session convenes and ends 20 days after final adjournment, a person (including a political committee) may not make a political contribution to a statewide officeholder or a member of the legislature or to a specific-purpose political committee for supporting, opposing, or assisting a statewide officeholder or a member of the legislature. Tex. Elec. Code § 253.034.
- (2) There are restrictions on contributions from corporations and labor organizations. Tex. Elec. Code § 253.091, et seq.

- (3) In order to accept certain contributions from an out-of-state political committee, a Texas political committee must obtain certain documentation regarding the out-of-state political committee. Tex. Elec. Code § 253.032. See “Out-Of-State Committee Making Contributions” in this guide.
- (4) Contributions in the Capitol and the Capitol Extension are prohibited. Contributions in a courthouse are also prohibited. Tex. Elec. Code § 253.039.
- (5) Cash contributions of more than $100 in the aggregate from one contributor in a reporting period are prohibited. (Here “cash” means coins and currency, not checks.) TEX. ELEC. CODE § 253.033.
- (6) Texas law does not allow anonymous contributions. Also, reports must disclose the actual source of a contribution, not an intermediary.
- (7) The Judicial Campaign Fairness Act places various campaign finance restrictions on certain judicial candidates and their supporting committees. See Tex. Elec. Code §§ 253.151 - 253.176.
- (8) The law requires that certain information be disclosed on most political advertising. For more information, see the Ethics Commission’s brochure titled “Political Advertising: What You Need To Know” which is available on the commission's website at <http://www.ethics.state.tx.us/main/guides.htm>.
- (9) Federal law generally prohibits the acceptance of contributions from foreign sources. Contact the Federal Election Commission at (800) 424-9530 or go to the FEC’s website at <http://www.fec.gov> for more detailed information.
