Who is a Candidate?

A person who knowingly and willingly takes affirmative action for the purpose of gaining nomination or election to public office or for the purpose of satisfying financial obligations incurred by the person in connection with the campaign for nomination or election.

Tex. Elec. Code § 251.001(1).

Examples of Affirmative Action

- (A) the filing of a campaign treasurer appointment;
- (B) the filing of an application for a place on the ballot;
- (C) the filing of an application for nomination by convention;
- (D) the filing of a declaration of intent to become an independent candidate or a declaration of write-in candidacy;
- (E) the making of a public announcement of a definite intent to run for public office in a particular election, regardless of whether the specific office is mentioned in the announcement;
- (F) before a public announcement of intent, the making of a statement of definite intent to run for public office and the soliciting of support by letter or other mode of communication;
- (G) the soliciting or accepting of a campaign contribution or the making of a campaign expenditure; and
- (H) the seeking of the nomination of an executive committee of a political party to fill a vacancy.

Tex. Elec. Code 251.001(1)

What is a CTA Form and Why is it Important?

- A document that appoints someone to be the campaign treasurer for a candidate.
- Candidates may not knowingly accept a campaign contribution or make/authorize a campaign expenditure when a CTA is not in effect.

Tex. Elec. Code §§ 252.011; 253.031.

Who Can be a Campaign Treasurer?

- Anyone except someone who is already a treasurer of a PAC that has outstanding reports or civil penalties.
 - But this exception does not apply if the PAC in connection with which the ineligibility arose has not accepted more than $5,000 in political contributions or made more than $5,000 in political expenditures in any semiannual reporting period.
 - A person who violates this prohibition is liable for a civil penalty not to exceed three times the amount of political contributions accepted or political expenditures made in violation of this section.
- A candidate can appoint him/herself as their campaign treasurer.

Tex. Elec. Code § 252.0011(a); 252.004.

Form CTA

- The Commission is required by law to create the CTA form, which can be found on our website here: <https://www.ethics.state.tx.us/data/forms/coh/cta.pdf>
- This form covers all information that is required by law.
- Three types of TA forms
 - CTA (candidate)
 - GTA (GPACs or general-purpose political action committees)
 - STA (SPACs or specific-purpose political action committees)

Tex. Elec. Code §§ 252.002; 252.003; 252.0031.

Modified Reporting for Candidates

- Excuses an opposed candidate from filing 30-day and 8-day pre-election reports and runoff reports.
- An opposed candidate is eligible only if the candidate does not intend to exceed either $930 in contributions or $930 in expenditures in connection with an election.
- If an opposed candidate selects modified reporting but later exceeds that threshold, they have to file certain pre-election reports, depending on when they exceeded the threshold
- Modified reporting lasts for an entire election cycle, so as long as the threshold isn't exceeded.

Tex. Elec. Code §§ 254.181; 254.183-184; 1 Tex. Admin. Code § 20.1(5).

DECLARATION

COMPLETE THIS SECTION ONLY IF YOU ARE CHOOSING MODIFIED REPORTING

-- This declaration must be filed no later than the 30th day before the first election to which the declaration applies. --

-- The modified reporting option is valid for one election cycle only. -- (An election cycle includes a primary election, a general election, and any related runoffs.)

-- Candidates for the office of state chair of a political party may NOT choose modified reporting. --

I do not intend to accept more than $930 in political contributions or make more than $930 in political expenditures (excluding filing fees) in connection with any future election within the election cycle. I understand that if either one of those limits is exceeded, I will be required to file pre-election reports and, if necessary, a runoff report.

Finding Forms on TEC Website

The screenshot shows the Texas Ethics Commission website. At the top, there is a search bar with the text "ENHANCED BY Google" and a magnifying glass icon. Below the search bar is a navigation menu with the following items: Resources, Opinions/Statutes/Rules, Filing Reports, Training, Forms/Instructions, Search, and Home. A dropdown menu is open under "Forms/Instructions", listing various categories: Candidate/Officeholder, Political Committee, Political Party, Individuals/Entities Direct Campaign Expenditure, Legislative Caucus, Speaker, Personal Financial Statement, Lobbyist, Treasurer Appointment (circled in red), Security, Affidavit, Conflict Of Interest, Sworn Complaint, and Other. Below the navigation menu, there is a banner for "Next Commission" with a play button and a pause button. The main content area is titled "Forms & Treasurer App" and "Instructions for Delivering TAs". The text below the title reads: "If you are on an upcoming ballot or are the treasurer of a political committee involved in an election, then... Texas state law requires all candidates, all officeholders, and all political committees to file a campaign treasurer appointment with the appropriate filing authority. You are required to have a campaign treasurer appointment on file with your filing authority EVEN IF YOU DO NOT PLAN TO RAISE OR SPEND ANY MONEY. Follow these steps to file your treasurer appointment form with your filing authority. 1. Select the appropriate Treasurer Appointment (TA) form from the list at the left side of this page. 2. Fill out the TA form. Read the TA form carefully and fill out all fields and all pages. Consider using business street addresses instead of residence addresses so that you do not advertise home addresses. 3. Determine your filing authority. Local filers file their treasurer appointments with their local filing authority. Statewide filers file their treasurer appointments with the Texas Ethics Commission. See question 4 in Frequently Asked Questions about the 2018 Elections to determine your filing authority. 4. Deliver your completed TA form to your filing authority. If you file with the Texas Ethics Commission, you may: a. EMAIL the signed PDF attachment to treasappoint@ethics.state.tx.us, or b. MAIL the signed form to Texas Ethics Commission, P.O. Box 12070, Austin, Texas 78711-2070.
